

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENTS

December 2003

Student exchange agreement with Tsinghua University Law School

To enhance the legal education of our respective students, NUS Faculty of Law and the Tsinghua University School of Law entered into a reciprocal student exchange agreement. This allows each law school to send one student on exchange for a year, or two students for a semester each. This brings the total number of student exchange agreements NUS Faculty of Law has with leading Chinese universities to four. The Faculty also has agreements with East China University of Politics and Law, Peking University Law School and Fudan University School of Laws.