

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

4 January 2004

A/P Tan Cheng Han is appointed Senior Counsel and re-appointed as Dean

The Faculty congratulates Associate Professor Tan Cheng Han '87 who was appointed Senior Counsel at the Opening of the Legal Year in January 2004 and has also been re-appointed Dean for a second term to take effect from 1 May 2004.

Cheng Han is one of two academics to receive this honour since the Senior Counsel scheme began in 1997. The other academic who has been appointed Senior Counsel this year is Prof. Andrew Phang '82.

When Cheng Han was appointed Dean in 2001, he became the youngest law dean since the establishment of the National University of Singapore. In relation to his re-appointment as Dean, Cheng Han says that this will enable him to see through the initiatives that he had begun. He adds that one important task during his second term will be to identify a new Dean and to ensure a smooth handover to the person succeeding him as the 14th Dean of the Faculty of Law.
