

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

May 2004

Exchange Agreements signed with New Partner Universities

The Student Exchange Programme (SEP) at the Faculty of Law has been growing over the years and students now have the unique opportunity to study law at over 30 partner universities around the World. The Faculty of Law is also proud to host incoming exchange students from our partner universities for one or two semesters each year.

Five new partner universities have recently been added to our SEP.

University of Western Ontario, Ontario, Canada

Queen's University at Kingston, Ontario, Canada

Catholic University of Leuven, Leuven, Belgium

Erasmus University Rotterdam, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

National Law School of India University, Bangalore, India

For more information on how you can be a part of the SEP, please visit the SEP webpage at <http://law.nus.edu.sg/current/sep.htm>