

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

1 November 2005

A/P Gary Bell is appointed to ISEAS Board

The Ministry of Education has appointed Associate Professor Gary F. Bell to the Board of Trustees of the Institute of South East Asian Studies \(ISEAS\) for a three-year term from 1 November 2005 to 31 October 2008. A/P Bell was nominated by NUS President Shih Choon Fong.

"I hope that this will lead to more and better collaboration between our Faculty and ISEAS." says A/P Gary F. Bell, who teaches comparative legal traditions and Indonesian law at NUS Faculty of Law and is also the Director of Asian Law Institute. Apart from his interest in Comparative Law and Indonesian Law, A/P Bell also teaches International and Comparative Law of Sale.

ISEAS is a regional research centre dedicated to the study of socio-political, security and economic trends and developments in Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic and economic environment. The Institute aims to nurture a community of scholars interested in the region and who will engage in research on the multi-faceted dimensions and issues of stability and security, economic development, and political, social and cultural change. The intention is not only to stimulate research and debate within scholarly circles, but also to enhance public awareness of the region and facilitate the search for viable solutions to the varied problems confronting the region.
