

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

August 2006

Jeffrey Pinsler and Simon Tay '86 awarded the Public Administration Medal (PBM)

The Faculty is proud to announce that Prof Jeffrey D. Pinsler was awarded the Public Service Medal (PBM) for his work as a member of the Criminal Law Advisory Committee. The Committee examines cases to ensure that there is sufficient evidence for the issue of detention or police supervision orders under the Criminal Law (Temporary Provisions) Act and makes recommendations to the President. Assoc Prof Simon Tay '86 was awarded the Public Service Medal (PBM) for his contributions as chairman of the National Environment Agency (NEA), under the Ministry of Environment and Water Resources. Associate Professor Tay has guided the NEA since its formation in 2002 as the main government regulator and facilitator for environmental protection and public health and in its responses to such issues as dengue, the regional fires and haze and Singapore's accession and implementation of the Kyoto Protocol.
