

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

January 2007

NUS Law Welcomes Back Comparative Criminal Law Scholar Stanley Yeo '76

The Faculty is delighted to welcome home Professor Stanley Yeo Meng Heong '76, who has taken up a Chair in Law. This is a homecoming for Stanley, who was a graduate of the Faculty (Class of 1976), taught with us for several years in the 1980s, and was more recently the David Marshall Visiting Professor of Law in 2004. Stanley comes to us from Southern Cross University, New South Wales, where he served as Head and Professor of the Law School. His research interests are in the fields of criminal law and torts, and he will be teaching in these areas as well.