

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

29 November 2008

NUS Law mourns the loss of alumna Lo Hwei Yen '03

The NUS Law community is extremely saddened by the the death of our alumna, Lo Hwei Yen '03. Hwei Yen was one of the victims of the terrorist attacks in Mumbai which claimed so many innocent lives. Our deepest condolences go to Hwei Yen's husband, Michael Puhaindran '96, and their families.

Hwei Yen was an intelligent, fun-loving and well-liked individual, who accomplished much in law school and in legal practice. She last visited the law school in early November to speak to students about her area of legal practice. She will be dearly missed by us all.