

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

8 November 2010

New Publication – Asia Alone by Associate Professor Simon Tay

Asia Alone, a recently published book by Associate Professor Simon Tay about US-Asia relations, norms and institutions in the wake of the global financial crisis, is garnering regional and international attention. Reviews in the Financial Times, Newsweek and most recently the Economist have been positive. The book has additionally been noticed in media in China, India, Thailand, Hong Kong and Japan. Tay has taught international and public law subjects at the NUS Faculty of Law since 1995.