Associate Professor Simon Tay appointed Co-Chair of Asia Society's Global Council

Associate Professor Simon Tay has been appointed as Co-Chair of the Asia Society's Global Council by the Asia Society's Board of Trustees on 1 February 2010.

Founded in 1956, Asia Society is a nonpartisan, nonprofit educational institution with offices in Hong Kong, Houston, Los Angeles, Manila, Melbourne, Mumbai, New York, San Francisco, Seoul, Shanghai, and Washington, DC. The Society is the leading global and pan-Asian organisation working to strengthen relationships and promote understanding among the people, leaders, and institutions of the United States and Asia. The members seek to increase knowledge and enhance dialogue, encourage creative expression, and generate new ideas across the fields of arts and culture, policy and business, and education.

The Society's Board of Trustees invites a distinguished group of leaders throughout Asia to join the Global Council. Its members are drawn from various sectors such as academic, business and non-governmental organisations.
