

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

21 January 2011

Lionel A. Sheridan Professorship Endowed Fund

The National University of Singapore (NUS) established the Lionel A. Sheridan Professorship at the NUS Faculty of Law to mark its first graduating class' 50th Anniversary celebrations and to honour the founding Dean of the Faculty.

The Professorship is the focus of a fundraising campaign initiated by the Class of '61 on this special occasion and it is hoped that alumni in the five subsequent classes will join the pioneer class in support of this Professorship.

Professor Sheridan joined the Department of Law in July 1956 as Professor of Law. As the first Head of Department, he was instrumental in planning the curriculum for legal studies, setting up a law library and negotiating for professional recognition of local law graduates. He also actively campaigned for the department to become a full Faculty. In 1959, the Department attained Faculty status with Professor Sheridan serving as the founding Dean till he stepped down in 1962.
