

APPLICATION - VISITING TEACHING APPOINTMENTS

Teaching Schedule

The teaching schedule for all intensive courses taught by Visiting Professors is as follows:

A total of 27 hours, to be taught as 3-hour seminars, 3 times a week (Monday, Wednesday and Friday) for 3 weeks. Classes on Mondays and Wednesdays are held from 6:30pm to 9:30pm; classes on Fridays are held from 2:30pm to 5:30pm. The schedule is fixed and cannot be changed (unless there is a public holiday and a make-up class is required).

Visiting Professors are expected to choose from one of the following teaching blocks:

- 1) the last three weeks of August 2018 (13-31 August 2018)
- 2) the first three weeks of September 2018 (3-21 September 2018)
- 3) the last three weeks of January 2019 (14 January-1 February 2019)
- 4) the first three weeks of February 2019 (4-22 February 2019)

Honorarium

An all-inclusive honorarium will be provided, out of which visitors would cover their own airfare and accommodation expenses.

Other Information

The courses offered by Visiting Professors should not duplicate or overlap significantly with present courses taught at NUS Law. The list of courses in the current academic year may be found here –

http://law.nus.edu.sg/student_matters/course_listing/courses_disp.asp?MT=LL&Sem=ALL&MGC=2

Visiting Professors are expected to submit all reading materials (e.g. cases and articles) in electronic format (either .doc or .pdf format) for uploading to the intranet and dissemination to students. No printed materials will be distributed to students. Students are also not expected to purchase any books for these intensive courses.

How to Apply

Please send an email to Associate Professor David Tan, Vice Dean (Academic Affairs), with your course proposal and preferred teaching blocks by 31 August 2017. The Faculty Curriculum Committee will make a decision by November 2017.