

CLINICAL INSTRUCTOR

1. The Centre for Pro Bono & Clinical Legal Education (“PBCLE”) runs and oversees programmes that provide students with hands-on legal experience under the supervision of qualified lawyers while also delivering legal services to individuals and organisations in need.
2. Prior to undertaking pro bono and clinical legal education programmes, students undergo preparatory training workshops to impart key legal skills.
3. PBCLE seeks suitable persons to apply to be CLINICAL INSTRUCTORS to deliver the preparatory training workshops.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

4. Applicants must have the following minimum qualifications :-
 - a. Qualified to practice in a common law jurisdiction
 - b. Second Upper or equivalent in law degree
 - c. Excellent communication skills in English
 - d. Minimum 5 years PQE in private practice, in-house or legal or judicial service
 - e. Demonstration of competence in specific areas, e.g. where applicable, we may request writing samples to demonstrate writing skills
 - f. Background in teaching / training

TERMS OF APPOINTMENT

5. This is an appointment as an independent contractor and does not constitute employment with the National University of Singapore, nor the Faculty of Law, NUS.
6. Classes are on Monday afternoons between January and April each year and successful applicants must be available to teach between 4 and 7 30 pm on Mondays as assigned by the PBCLE.
7. Shortlisted applicants will be invited to undergo mandatory training and assessment as part of the selection process.
8. Successful applicants enter into a contract for services with NUS Law on terms to be agreed between the PBCLE and the applicant.
9. Remuneration is on a per-workshop basis.

APPLICATION PROCESS

10. Interested applicants should submit the following to lawclinic@nus.edu.sg :-
 - a. Detailed curriculum vitae including
 - i. Details of basic law degree obtained (Class of Honours if any)
 - ii. Practice experience for a minimum of the preceding 5 years
 - b. Evidence of teaching / training experience
 - c. A personal statement on the candidate's views on teaching legal skills
 - d. A statement of the applicant's experience with community or pro bono work, if any

11. Supporting documents and writing samples will be requested when necessary.

PBCLE
5 December 2017