Dear Alumni

50th Anniversary Visit to Bukit Timah Campus – Classes of 2000 to 2007

50 years after its establishment in July 1956, and 49 years after legal education in Singapore began in September 1957, the law school has returned to its original site, the historic and charming Bukit Timah campus.

We have had to do a lot of work to restore and retrofit the buildings that now comprise the law school. This was made more challenging by the regulatory requirements relating to conservation buildings and a tight timeframe to get the buildings ready for the academic year beginning in August 2006. Nevertheless, my colleagues and I have managed this and as part of our 50th anniversary celebrations which will culminate in a gala dinner on Saturday 1 September 2007, we wish to invite you and other alumni from the graduating classes of 2000 - 2007 to take a trip down memory lane by visiting the 'new' law school in Bukit Timah and joining my colleagues and I for dinner.

While we celebrate the achievements of the law school over the last 50 years, it is also important for us to look ahead and continue to keep our alumni informed of developments within the law school. Accordingly, I will in the course of the evening take the opportunity to make a short presentation to give you a sense of where the law school is heading and the exciting developments that are taking place. Indeed I would welcome your views and advice about how the law school can continue to transform itself and become an even better institution of legal education.

The details of the evening are as follows:

Date: Friday 17 August 2007
Time: 6.30 pm

I do hope you can attend and look forward to meeting you on Friday 17 August 2007. I would be grateful if you can indicate whether you are coming by using the attached form.

With best wishes,

Professor Tan Cheng Han, SC ’87
