

SPEAKER: LEE CHIEN HERR

NEW LAWYERING – BUSINESS SKILLS IN THE AGE OF DISRUPTION

Chien Herr has advised business entities from start-ups to banks and financial institutions to corporates/SMEs. He advises on all aspects of financing; his mergers and acquisitions and cross-border ship finance expertise has been mentioned in a number of prominent industry publications.

His sector experience includes fintech and start-ups, maritime, commodities and commercial property developments (in Singapore and overseas).

He will draw from his experience as a business owner (in an international firm as well as a Singapore law firm) and will discuss the skill set that will be useful to build a sustainable legal practice.

TUE, 10 SEP 2019 • 6.30PM - 8.30PM
• NUS BUKIT TIMAH CAMPUS

In the current business environment, are lawyers relevant? Are legal skills the be-all and end-all for a successful career?

Scan QR code to sign up

Asia Practice