

Centre for Future-ready Graduates

Lunchtime Talk:

Our distinguished panel of alumni will share their career stories and talk about the multiple roles a modern in-house lawyer plays, and the various technical, business and future-ready skills needed to succeed.

Event Details

Date:	6 April 2018, Friday
Time:	1230H to 1400H (Please do not be late) Lunch will be provided.
Venue:	Blk B, 4 th Level, Seminar Room 4-4 National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law
Registration:	https://tinyurl.com/ybksrhvh

SPEAKERS

Loretta Yuen

General Counsel, Head of Group Legal and Regulatory Compliance and Executive Vice-President, Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation Limited

Appointed General Counsel and Head of Group Legal and Regulatory Compliance in September 2010 and Executive Vice-President on 1 June 2015. Loretta oversees the full spectrum of legal and regulatory risks, including anti-money laundering, across OCBC Bank and its subsidiaries, and provides advice on regulatory risks and legal issues involved in decisions to management, so that management can make informed strategic choices within an acceptable legal and regulatory risk profile. Loretta has over 17 years of legal and regulatory experience in banking and finance. Loretta was conferred the IBF Distinguished Fellow award in 2016. The IBF Distinguished Fellow is a significant role model who serves as a beacon of excellence for the financial industry. Loretta was also conferred the Outstanding Singapore Chief legal Officer Award in 2017 by the Singapore Corporate Counsel Association.

Wong Taur-Jiun

President, Singapore Corporate Counsel Association and Head of Legal, Rabobank Singapore

Wong Taur-Jiun is the Head of Legal at Rabobank Singapore. He graduated from the National University of Singapore with both a law degree and an MBA. Taur-Jiun started his career in litigation and corporate commercial before moving in-house into international trade and technology.

Taur-Jiun is the President and also one of the founding members of the Singapore Corporate Counsel Association (SCCA).

Charles Lim Sing Siong
General Counsel (Managing Director) at GIC

Charles Lim is the General Counsel (Managing Director) at GIC, where he oversees the Legal and Compliance department. Prior to GIC, Charles was in private practice with Rajah and Tann and Jones Day before moving to Credit Suisse where he was the Head of Legal and Compliance (Southeast Asia). Charles graduated from NUS Law School and did his masters in law in the University of Oxford. Charles is a Chartered Arbitrator and a Fellow of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators (FSI Arb). He is also a member of the Users Council National Committee of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre.

Mr Lim plays an active role in the community. As a volunteer, he was previously responsible for the recruitment and training of volunteers for Club Rainbow (a charity for terminally ill children) and the founder of an award-winning website for Red Cross Singapore. In leading Credit Suisse's corporate social responsibility and philanthropy efforts, he was awarded the CEO Leadership Award for corporate citizenship. At the Central Singapore Community Development Council, he has been serving as a District Councillor since 2008 and is now into his third term. For his contributions to the community, Mr Lim was conferred the Public Service Medal (PBM) in 2016.

Jinesh Lalwani
Chief of Staff at Lazada Group

Jinesh Lalwani is Chief of Staff at Lazada Group. Prior to this, he was Assistant General Counsel (AGC), and Head of Legal for Lazada Singapore. In his role as AGC, his portfolio comprised managing legal operations, corporate and commercial work, with a focus on TMT and intellectual property matters. Mr Lalwani was also a key member of the legal team that advised on the acquisition of a controlling stake in Lazada by Chinese e-commerce giant Alibaba in 2016. During his tenure, the legal team was the recipient of several awards, including the Most Innovative In-House Team of the Year, ALB SEA Awards (2017) and M&A deal of the Year, Asia Legal Awards (2017). The team was also recognised as a 'Standout' team in the Financial Times' Asia-Pacific Innovative Lawyers rankings 2017.