

Centre for Future-ready Graduates

Lunchtime Talk: The Journey from Private Practice to In-House Counsel

Brief Synopsis: Krista and Henrietta will share their valuable insights on the skills required to successfully transition from private practice roles in the UK, Australia and Asia to In-House roles with a large, global explosives manufacturer listed on the ASX – Orica Limited. They will also share their thoughts on practicing law in the mining industry and discuss opportunities currently available to NUS law students to experience In-House life through Orica’s Legal Internship in Singapore.

Event Details

Date:	7 March 2018, Wednesday
Time:	1230H to 1400H (Please do not be late) Lunch will be provided.
Venue:	Blk B, 4 th Level, Seminar Room 4-4 National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law
Registration:	https://tinyurl.com/y98ur346

SPEAKERS

Krista Stewart
General Counsel, Orica International

Krista Stewart is the General Counsel of Orica International based in Singapore. She primarily advises on the centralised aspects of Orica’s global hub business being procurement, supply chain, manufacturing, IP and strategic aspects of marketing.

Having worked in Australia for 4 years and throughout Asia for 13 years, she spent 9 years in private practice with Allens Arthur Robinson advising large MNCs, government bodies and private equity players on M&A; capital markets; funds management and construction litigation. Before permanently moving to an in-house role with Orica 8 years ago, she spent time in-house on a secondment with Rio Tinto.

Henrietta McIndoe
Legal Counsel, Orica International

Henrietta is legal counsel at Orica International based in Singapore where she focuses on advising the business on procurement, supply chain and global distribution. She was previously in-house legal counsel at Equis, Asia's largest independent renewable energy developer and investor, advising teams across the APAC region on a variety of commercial and corporate matters.

Prior to moving in-house Henrietta worked at Hogan Lovells for five years. After finishing her training contract with Hogan Lovells in London, Henrietta was as an associate in the firm's Infrastructure, Energy, Resources and Projects department in Singapore where she focused on corporate and M&A work in the oil and gas sector. Henrietta was also an associate in the firm's International Debt Capital Markets department in Singapore.

Orica is the world's largest provider of commercial explosives and innovative blasting systems to the mining, quarrying, oil and gas and construction markets, a leading supplier of sodium cyanide for gold extraction, and a specialist provider of ground support services in mining and tunnelling.

About the Orica Legal Internship:

The Orica Legal Internship is designed to develop your legal skills in a real-life business environment. This will help kick start your Legal Career as a differentiated candidate.

The Orica Legal Internship will provide you with up to a 3-month opportunity (May-July 2018) to:

- join a motivated & pragmatic Legal Team and assist with advising on cross-border matters;
- join certain training and information sessions with Senior Leaders of the Business;
- experience on-the-job training in a commercial context; and
- enjoy a robust learning experience in a real-life business environment.

Come join us in this session to find out more details about the Orica Legal Internship and details on how to apply!