

Title of the Talk: Funds & Investment Management Practice at Rajah & Tann

Guest speakers Arnold Tan and Leong Lu Yueh are both partners in the Funds & Investment Management Practice at Rajah & Tann. They will speak about the firm and its Asia network, and provide an introduction to fund management. There will also be a discussion about what it means to be a lawyer in the financial services sector.

Event Details

Date:	12 October 2016, Wednesday
Time:	1230H to 140H (Please be seated by 1215H) Lunch will be provided.
Venue:	Seminar Room 5-2 (5 th Floor, Block B) National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law
Registration link:	http://tinyurl.com/jmr4mtx

The Speakers:

Arnold Tan's primary focus is in investment funds and related regulations. He leads the Funds & Investment Management Practice Group that provides advice on fund management and investment advisory services and generally on the establishment of both onshore and offshore investment funds.

His team represents a broad cross section of investment managers in Singapore across various asset classes. Other clients in related industries include private client and wealth management units of banks, and other financial institutions such as fund administrators, investment fund distributors, trustees and custodians.

He was named in The International Who's Who, Practical Law Company's Which Lawyer, Chambers Asia Pacific and Euromoney's Guide to the World's Leading Investment Funds Lawyers as a leading lawyer in Singapore for investment funds.

Leong Lu Yueh practices securities law with an emphasis on investment management clients. She regularly advises investment managers, investment funds and financial institutions on a range of matters, including the establishment of fund management and investment advisory operations in Singapore, domestic and offshore fund structuring and formation, domestic and international offerings of hedge funds, funds of funds and hybrid funds, and related regulatory and compliance matters.

In addition, she acts for various financial institutions and service providers to the wealth management and investment funds industries, such as administrators, custodians, trustees and underwriters, as well as for corporate and sovereign institutional investors in connection with their investments in investment funds and co-investments. She has been recognised as a leading lawyer (2013 - 2016) and Outstanding Younger Partner (2014) by Chambers Asia-Pacific, and has been recognised in Who's Who Legal as a leading lawyer in Private Funds (Formation).

Centre for Future-Ready Graduates
Faculty of Law, NUS