

The Cross-Disciplinary Practice of Modern Law: How Corporate and Litigation Practices Collaborate

The complexity of modern legal practice requires lawyers to have an understanding of both corporate and litigation practice, and collaboration between corporate and litigation practice groups is commonplace when it comes to high value transactions and disputes.

Join us in this careers talk to find out more about how our Tier 1 corporate and litigation practice groups collaborate to deliver effective solutions and services for our clients. We will also touch on the cross-disciplinary training opportunities afforded to practice trainees, and on the flexibility of moving across practice groups.
