

Fireside Chat: A Day in the Life of a Financial Services Lawyer

What are "Financial Services"?

What does it take to be a financial services lawyer?

What are the pros and cons of specialisation?

These are some of the questions that may cross the minds of young law students when applying for internships and training contracts. If you are interested in knowing what it is like working in a financial services department and whether this is for you, join us for our fireside chat hosted by a panel of four A&G practitioners from a variety of practice groups, who will aim to give you some insight into what it means to be a financial services lawyer.

Date: 13 March 2024, Wednesday
Time: 1:00PM to 3:00PM (Lunch will be provided)
Venue: Block B, 4th Level, Seminar Room 4-4
National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law

Register

About the Speakers:

Tan Zhi Feng, Partner

Victoria Leong, Partner

Delwin Singh, Partner

Foo Jia Yu, Senior Associate

Introduction to Allen & Gledhill's Partners

Partner Tan Zhi Feng specialises in financial services regulations. His practice focuses on advising financial institutions on regulations affecting their business, and their relationship with the regulator.

Partner Victoria Leong's areas of practice include capital markets, mergers and acquisitions and investment funds, providing vital advice on financial transactions such as secondary fundraisings and acquisitions of fund platforms.

Partner Delwin Singh's areas of practice include debt capital markets as well as banking and finance.

Senior Associate Foo Jia Yu's practice encompasses investment funds and capital markets with a focus on private funds, REITS and business trusts.

Please click here to view the full profile of our speakers.

Eu Tong Sen Building
469G Bukit Timah Road Singapore 259776

+65 6516 1385 | lawcareers@nus.edu.sg