

Hit Me with Your Best Shot Resume, Cover Letter & Interview Skills Workshops

Ready to stand out in the training contract process? Join us on 8 May 2026 for practical, skills-based workshops designed to help law students strengthen their written applications, approach interviews with confidence, and understand what law firms are really looking for — directly from lawyers involved in trainee recruitment.

Delivered in conjunction with partners from WongPartnership, these workshops are specially designed for law students preparing to apply for training contracts in July 2026.

Date: 8 May 2026, Friday
Time: 10:00AM to 4:00PM (Lunch will be provided.)
Venue: C J Koh Law Library - Seminar Room 3 (EC-02-06)
National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law

Spaces are limited – sign up for one session or both.

- Morning Workshop Only – Resume & Cover Letter Skills (10:00AM – 12:00PM)
- Afternoon Workshop Only – Interview Skills (1:00PM – 3:00PM)
- Both Workshops – Get the full-day experience

Register

Full Details

Morning Session: Resume & Cover Letter Workshop (10:00AM-12:00PM)

You only get one chance to make a first impression — make yours count. This interactive session will cover:

- How to structure a resume that highlights real value, not just credentials
- How to write a cover letter that feels authentic and persuasive
- Common mistakes students make — and how to avoid them
- What recruiters actually look for in training contract applications

No generic advice – just honest, practical guidance from lawyers involved in trainee recruitment.

Speakers: Kevin Ho, Lesley Fu, Gavin Neo & Tian Sion Yoong

Delicious lunch provided for all attendees (12:00PM-1:00PM)

Afternoon Session: Interview Skills Workshop (1:00PM-3:00PM)

Strong grades matter — but so does how you present yourself. Learn how to approach interviews with confidence and clarity, including:

- The questions law firms are most likely to ask
- How to structure thoughtful, convincing answers
- Techniques to stay calm under pressure
- What separates a good candidate from a memorable one

Speakers: Smitha Menon, Kyle Lee, Daryl Wong & Ho Soon Keong

Networking Opportunities with partners from WongPartnership (3:00PM-4:00PM)

About the Speakers:

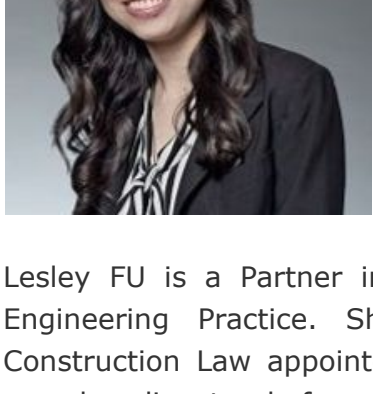

Kevin Ho
Co-Head of Corporate Governance and Compliance Practice & Partner, in Mergers & Acquisitions Practice, WongPartnership

Kevin Ho is Co-Head of WongPartnership’s Corporate Governance and Compliance Practice and a Partner in the Mergers & Acquisitions Practice. His main areas of practice are corporate governance and compliance, regulatory compliance, and corporate advisory, covering both public and private clients.

Kevin regularly advises boards of directors, senior management, and key stakeholders on governance frameworks, directors’ duties, and compliance with applicable regulatory regimes. He has deep expertise in helping listed organisations navigate complex regulatory and compliance issues, and deal with regulators.

Kevin is a member of the Singapore Institute of Directors and serves on its Bulletin Committee.

Lesley Fu
Partner, in Infrastructure, Construction & Engineering Practice, WongPartnership

Lesley FU is a Partner in WongPartnership’s Infrastructure, Construction & Engineering Practice. She is an Accredited Specialist in Building and Construction Law appointed by the Singapore Academy of Law. She acts in complex disputes before the Singapore Courts, SIAC and ICC, and regularly handles adjudications under the Building and Construction Security of Payment Act 2004, mediations and neutral evaluations. Lesley also advises on major domestic and international projects, including lifestyle, healthcare, commercial and hospitality developments, and is experienced with bespoke and standard form construction contracts (including SIA, PSSCOC, REDAS and FIDIC). She is recognised in Best Lawyers for Construction Law (2023–2026).

Gavin Neo
Partner, in Professional & Enterprise Disputes Practice and the White Collar & Enforcement Practice, WongPartnership

Gavin Neo is a Partner at WongPartnership’s Professional & Enterprise Disputes Practice and the White Collar & Enforcement Practice. He specialises in complex international commercial litigation and arbitration, fraud and asset recovery, and criminal litigation. He has acted in cross-border fraud investigations and defended claims involving the recovery of misappropriated assets spanning multiple jurisdictions. His criminal practice focuses on business crime, corruption, anti-money laundering, Official Secrets Act matters, Interpol Red Notices and corporate governance offences. Recognised as a Future Star in Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific 2025, Gavin graduated from King’s College London and is admitted to the Singapore Bar.

TIAN Sion Yoong
Partner, in Financial Services Regulatory, Derivatives & Structured Products, and FinTech Practices, WongPartnership

TIAN Sion Yoong is a Partner in WongPartnership’s Financial Services Regulatory, Derivatives & Structured Products, and FinTech Practices. He advises on regulatory frameworks in Singapore, including licensing requirements for financial institutions, market infrastructures and intermediaries. His work spans emerging technologies such as blockchain, digital assets and AI, as well as carbon credits, tokenisation and digital finance projects. He also handles derivatives transactions, including ISDA documentation, and has experience in structured finance, bond issuances and securitisation. Previously, he served as in-house counsel at a major investment bank, supporting trading businesses on transactional and regulatory matters.

Smitha Menon
Head of Restructuring & Insolvency Practice & Partner, in International Arbitration, India and Special Situations Advisory Practices, WongPartnership

Smitha Menon is the Head of WongPartnership’s Restructuring & Insolvency Practice and a Partner in International Arbitration, India and Special Situations Advisory Practices. She focuses on corporate disputes and cross-border restructuring. She holds leadership roles in global organisations, including Vice President of the International Insolvency Institute, and serves on multiple arbitration and advisory panels such as ICC and SIAC. A former Singapore Law Society Council member, she remains active in disciplinary and professional committees. Smitha has received international recognition, including IWIRC’s 2020 Woman of the Year (Asia), and was the first female Singapore member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration.

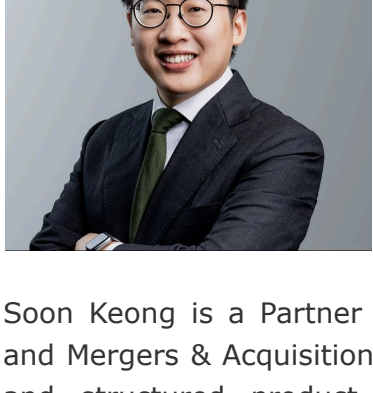

Kyle Lee
Partner, in Mergers & Acquisitions, Private Equity and FinTech Practices, WongPartnership

Kyle Lee is a Partner at WongPartnership’s Mergers & Acquisitions, Private Equity and FinTech Practices. He is the Co-Head of WPGrow: Start-Up/Venture Capital and founded WPGrow nearly a decade ago. Under his leadership the practice was named “Law Firm of the Year – Private Equity & Venture Capital” (Asian Legal Business, 2023–2025) and the first Singapore-based practice ranked Tier 1 across all major directories. Recognised individually as a top-tier start-up and venture capital lawyer and ALB SE Asia “Young Lawyer of the Year” 2025, Kyle acts on cross-border VC, M&A, private equity and FinTech matters, particularly in Singapore and Indonesia.

Daryl Wong
Partner, in Banking & Financial Disputes Practice, WongPartnership

Daryl Wong is a Partner in WongPartnership’s Banking & Financial Disputes Practice. He specialises in international arbitration, litigation and mediation, handling complex, high-value and multi-jurisdictional disputes. His work spans private, commercial, fraud and investment matters. Daryl has represented banking, public and individual clients in the Singapore courts, the Singapore International Commercial Court, and in both ad hoc and institutional arbitrations under leading rules. He also has significant experience in arbitration-related court proceedings, including applications for setting aside and enforcement, as well as other court matters arising from arbitration proceedings.

Ho Soon Keong
Partner, in Debt Capital Markets Practice and Mergers & Acquisitions Practice, WongPartnership

Soon Keong is a Partner at WongPartnership’s Debt Capital Markets Practice and Mergers & Acquisitions Practice. His main areas of expertise are securities and structured product offerings, securitisations, local and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, and general corporate and commercial transactions. Soon Keong graduated from the Singapore Management University and is admitted to the Singapore Bar.