2. Class Attendance & SILE-CPD Points

You are required to attend all classes regularly.

Qualified lawyers practicing in Singapore who require SILE-CPD Points should request a customized attendance sheet from NUS Law Academy before the start of the course. Attendance are to be acknowledged by your course convenor for each lesson on the attendance sheet. Students have to achieve at least a 75% attendance rate for every course and not be absent from the each day of a course for more than 15 minutes to be eligible for CPD Points claim.

3. Advisory on Consultation on Work-related Legal Issues or Reproduction of Course Materials

Our Graduate Certificate Programmes are not meant to allow adult learners to raise issues not directly relevant to the course material or hypothetical case studies used in teaching. Course instructors are entitled to decline to offer consultations or take specific questions on matters that are not relevant to the course syllabus or pedagogical objectives.

In particular, participation in this Graduate Certificate Programme is not a legitimate means to develop competing or in-house training programmes on the same subject matter. This may amount to a breach of copyright or plagiarism and may be dealt with accordingly.

4. Graduation Requirements

Candidates must pass all courses and successfully obtain a total of 12 to 13 units (MCs) (generally 3 courses) within a maximum period of 36 months of their candidature in order to be awarded the Graduate Certificate.

5. Maximum Period of Candidature

The maximum period of candidature for this Graduate Certificate Programme is 36 months.

6. Units

Each intensive graduate course of 27 hours of coursework typically carries 4 units. A semester-long graduate course of 39 hours typically carries 5 units.

Units are earned when a student passes a course. No units will be accorded if a student fails the course.

7. Grading at NUS Law

NUS Law grades according to a curve. The curve used at NUS Law as a guide in a class of reasonable size (20 or more) is as follows:

A+, A, A-	B+, B, B-	C+, C, D+, D, F
25-45%	40-75%	0-15%

As a result, the average grade in a class of reasonable size will normally be around a “B”. This should be contrasted to the situation in many law schools (particularly in the US) where the average grade tends to be around “B+” or even higher.

Note that this statement applies only to NUS Law and should not be interpreted as a statement of NUS grading policy generally.

8. Course Information

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that he/she is not registered for courses with clashes in class or examination schedules.

The schedules for Sit-down Final Examination, Take Home Exam and Research Papers can be found at the following Academic Affairs website at:

https://law1a.nus.edu.sg/student_matters/ay2627/timetable.html

9. Course or Programme Withdrawal

Students who wish to withdraw from a course or from the Grad Cert Programme entirely may apply to do so within the deadlines stipulated below. When dropping a course, students should be mindful of the “W” and “F” grade period indicated below:

Students are strongly advised to read the course descriptions carefully before selecting their courses.

If a student withdraws within the “No Penalty” grade duration, the course fees (less miscellaneous fees) will be returned and credited to your EduRec Student Account. You would be able to use the credits to pay for your next course. For withdrawals after the “W” grade deadlines, no fee return will be applicable.

10. Term And Course Enrollment (TACE) for New Semester

Course selection for the next Semester will typically take during the following periods:

Academic Semester	Course Selection Period
Semester One (Aug to Nov)	1 to 31 May
Semester Two (Jan to Apr)	1 to 31 October

Students will be required to log into the MyEduRec system to indicate their intention to (i) continue the programme in the next semester and (ii) select and rank their course choice(s).

An email notification will be sent to students nearer the course selection date with the TACE User Guide.

Do note that course allocation is subject to availability of spaces and there is a possibility that students may not be assigned the courses of their most preferred choices.

ASSESSMENT & EXAMINATION MATTERS

11. Modes of Assessments

Students should be aware of the different modes of assessments (eg. take-home examinations, research papers, quiz, mini moots, presentations, class participation, in-class tests (open or closed-book), proctored final examination etc) and their weightage on their overall grading. Details on assessment modes and weightage are available in the course descriptions on the NUS Law Course Listing webpage.

12. Class Participation

Class participation plays a crucial role in self-directed active learning in NUS Law. Student are advised to do their readings before class, ask questions and participate actively in class discussions. The grading component for class participation ranges from 10% to 30%, depending on courses.

13. Examinations

Unless otherwise stated, examinations for coursework courses are usually held at the end of each semester of study. Students may refer to the Examination Directory for information pertaining to examination every semester such as:

- Examination Schedules/Timetables
- Instructions to Examination Candidates & Examination Rules
- Important Deadlines on Examination-related Matters
- Examination Forms & Guidelines

A breach in any of the examination rules will render a candidate liable to disciplinary action which may result in the student's expulsion from the University.

Students who fail to sit for an examination of a course, without a valid reason accepted to the University will be given a Grade "F" (Fail) for the course which he/she is absent in.

14. Special Consideration for Final Examinations

If there are any circumstances, academic or otherwise, which have adversely affected a student's academic performance during the course of the semester as well as during the examination period, the student may submit such information to the Board of Examiners for consideration. In general, examples of such circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Illness during an examination which resulted in the student not being able to complete the examination; and
- Illness during an examination but for which the student completes the examination nevertheless

All such submissions will be treated in the strictest confidence. Submission is to be made on MyEduRec prior to or immediately after exam. The User Guide can be found at the Examination Directory website.

The completed forms are to be accompanied by supporting documents (if any) and submitted to the Office of Vice Dean (Academic Affairs) within the stipulated deadline. Late submissions will not be accepted.

15. Special Consideration for Continual Assessments

Download the Special Consideration Form HERE. Complete the form and email it along with supporting documents to email: lawgrad@nus.edu.sg, copying email: nuslawacademy@nus.edu.sg at least 3 working days prior to your assignment deadline.

16. Failure of Subjects

Students who fail subjects may, at the discretion of the Board of Examiners, be given two options. As the first option, they may be allowed to take a Supplementary Examination or sit for a Viva (oral) Examination within two months of the publication of the marks. The transcript will indicate both the Fail grade of the course taken at the Main Examination and the grade received for the course taken at the Supplementary Examination.

As the second option, a student may elect to do an additional semester and carry forward the failed subjects to the additional semester, provided the maximum candidature is not yet exceeded. In such case, the fail grades will be reflected on the transcript for that semester. However, when the student either repeats the subjects or takes new subjects (with full course fees applicable) in the additional semester, the actual grades received will be reflected on the transcript accordingly.

17. Digital Assessments & Examinations

Depending on the modes of assessments stipulated for students' allocated courses, there may be instances where students have to undertake online continuous assessments, small and high-stakes examinations using their own laptop computers in a proctored open or closed-book environment.

The submission of assessments and examination may involve:

- (i) uploading assignments or take-home examinations onto NUS Canvas (See Appendix E)
- (ii) writing and submitting their answers on Exemplify Software

Instructions on downloading and using Exemplify can be found at: <https://nus.atlassian.net/wiki/spaces/DStudent/overview>

18. Review of Results

Students may request a review of their results after they have been released regardless of the grades obtained for the course(s). However, the review is only applicable to the courses taken in the current semester and the applications must be submitted to the Office of Academic Affairs, using the prescribed form in MyEduRec, within 3 working days of results release. Strictly, any application received after the deadline will not be processed. The User Guide for Review of Results System on MyEduRec can be found at the Examination Directory.

The review will not involve marking an answer script a second time. To do so at this juncture would be out of context with no relative comparison with the rest of the class. The review would only involve the checking through the pages of the answer scripts to ensure that all answers were marked and that there were no mistakes in the summation of marks of all the continuous assessments and examinations. If a mistake is discovered, the University reserves the right to make revisions to students' results in accordance with NUS guidelines and policies.

Students who failed their courses are encouraged to attend a feedback session with their lecturers to close the learning loop (including going through the examination answer scripts, if appropriate). Such students should initiate an appointment with their lecturers as soon as it is practicable.
