VENUE: MOOT COURT, NEXT TO THE SUMMIT CAFETERIA,

ABSTRACT OF THE LECTURE
The last decade has seen a rising interest in impact investing—investing in market-based enterprises to achieve social impact as well as financial returns—and in the related emerging phenomenon of social impact bonds, which combines pay-for-success contracts with novel forms of financing. We will examine the criteria of social impact in the context of both concessionary and non-concessionary investments and will discuss the potential of social impact bonds.
