CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

SEMINAR ON ANALYZING INDIA’S NEW COMPANY LAW

BY
Assistant Professor Umakanth Varottil
NUS, Faculty of Law

23 OCTOBER 2013, WEDNESDAY
4.30PM – 6.45PM
SEMINAR ROOM 3, LEVEL 3, BLK B
NUS, FACULTY OF LAW (BUKIT TIMAH CAMPUS)

ABOUT THE SEMINAR
India recently enacted the Companies Act, 2013, which represents the first overhaul of company legislation in more than 50 years. The new law is expected to come into force in stages once the rules are notified by the Central Government. This seminar will analyze the impact of the new law on businesses in India and on investors (both domestic and foreign). The areas of focus span a wide range and include corporate structures, investment instruments, capital markets, corporate governance, corporate social responsibility (CSR), mergers and acquisitions and corporate litigation.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Umakanth Varottil is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore (NUS). He specializes in corporate law and governance, mergers and acquisitions and cross-border investments. While his work is generally comparative in nature, his particular focus is on India. He has co-authored a book, published articles in international journals and founded the Indian Corporate Law Blog. He has also taught on a visiting basis at the Fordham Law School, New York and at a number of law schools in India. He is the recipient of several academic medals and honours. Prior to his foray into academia, Umakanth was a partner at Amarchand Mangaldas, a leading Indian law firm. In 2006 and 2007, he was ranked as a leading corporate/mergers & acquisitions lawyer in India by the Chambers Global Guide.
