

CML is proud to host the 18th International Maritime Law Arbitration Moot (IMLAM) 2017 in collaboration with Murdoch University. IMLAM is a well-established annual international competition with attractive participation from universities worldwide.

The moot problem involves a dispute relating to commercial maritime law and arbitration, to be determined before an arbitral tribunal under the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration Rules.

IMLAM 2017 has attracted a record number of 27 teams from around the globe. The Grand Finals will be presided over by Sir Bernard Rix, Justice Belinda Ang and Mr Andrew Moran QC.
