FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENTS

1 October 2019

POST-DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS IN ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021 (AUGUST 2020 TO JULY 2021)

The Faculty of Law of the National University of Singapore (NUS Law) is one of the premier places for legal research in Asia. It has an active research culture with seven research centres, an intense and diverse array of research events and seminars, and large numbers of eminent researchers visiting it from around the world. In 2019, it was ranked the top Law School for research in Asia by the QS and Times Higher Education rankings, and 13th and 21st globally.

We invite applications for Post-Doctoral Fellowship positions commencing in AY2020-2021. These Post-Doctoral Fellowship positions may be held generally within NUS Law or, for candidates with appropriate backgrounds and expertise, within the Centre for Asian Legal Studies, Centre for Banking & Finance Law, EW Barker Centre for Law & Business and the Centre for Legal Theory.

Successful applicants will commence their Fellowships at the start of August 2020 and conclude them at the end of July 2021.

Benefits

1. Fellows will be appointed to the full-time position of Post-Doctoral Fellow at NUS Law on a one-year contract, with the possibility of renewal up to a maximum term of 2 years, and with a fixed remuneration of S$78,000. This all-in sum is inclusive of stipends for housing and living expenses.

2. Fellows will be reimbursed for a return economy class airfare (by the most economical and direct route) up to a maximum of S$2,000 to and from Singapore.

3. Fellows will be allocated a Faculty Research and Conference Fund allowance of S$3,000 to support attendance at academic conferences. Fellows attached to Research Centres will have a similar allowance, subject to the funding conditions required.

4. Fellows will be allocated shared office space at NUS Law or within the Centres.

5. Fellows may be given the opportunity to present their research in NUS Law’s Research Seminar Series or other seminars hosted by the named Centres.
Selection criteria

The selection committee will consider the following criteria in making an appointment for the position of Post-Doctoral Fellow at NUS Law:

1. The applicant must be of exceptional calibre, having attained a doctoral degree in law which must have been successfully completed and examined during the period 1 January 2018 to 30 April 2020. Applicants who have not been awarded the doctoral degree by the date of application but who intend to submit their doctoral thesis for examination not later than 31 January 2020 are welcome to apply, but in these circumstances written assurance is required from the applicant's supervisor (and endorsed by the awarding institution) that there is reasonable expectation that the doctoral degree will be awarded. Applicant must hold a doctoral degree in law by the time of appointment.

2. The principal selection criterion will be the applicant’s potential for excellence in research and the proposed programme of research of the applicant. An existing record of publication or participation in research projects are examples of evidence of such potential.

3. For positions within the Centre for Asian Legal Studies, applicants are particularly sought within the fields of Comparative Private Law in Asia, Comparative Public Law in Asia, Comparative Civil Law Traditions, Law and Development in Asia, Law and Society in Asia, as well as Law and Religion in Asia.

4. For positions within the Centre for Banking & Finance Law, applications are sought from those with interests in Banking and Financial Law.

5. For positions within the EW Barker Centre for Law & Business, applicants are particularly sought within the fields of Intellectual and other Property, Insolvency, Corporations, Competition, Tax, Private Law, and Arbitration.

6. For positions within the Centre for Legal Theory, applicants are welcomed within any area of legal theory. Research interests of current members can be found at https://law.nus.edu.sg/clt/ppl_members.html.
