

OFFICIAL LAUNCH: Environmental Courts and Tribunals

A Guide for Policy Makers - 2021

ZOOM WEBINAR

1 September 2022

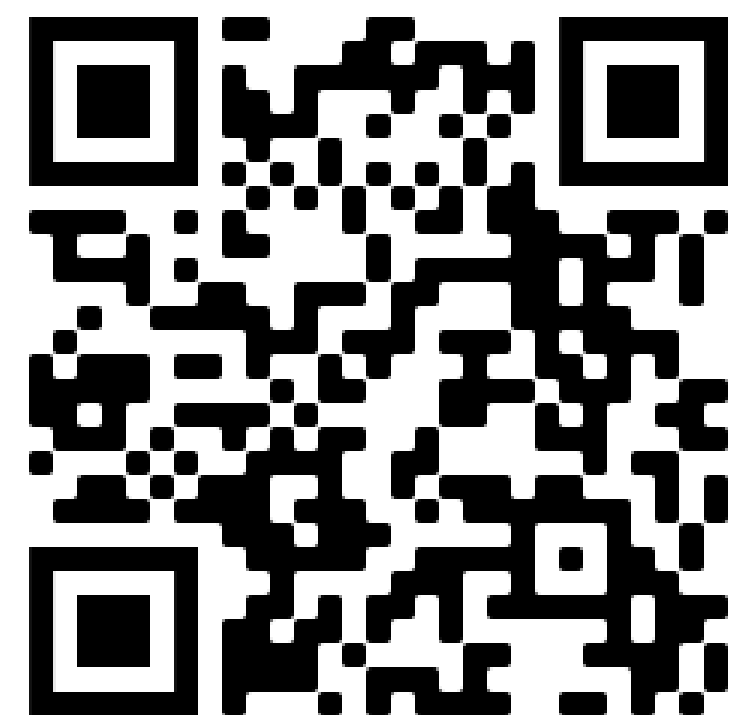

4.00pm - 5.40pm (SGT)

In 2021, the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) commissioned the National University of Singapore's Asia-Pacific Centre for Environmental Law (APCEL) to undertake a global study on Environmental Courts and Tribunals (ECTs) and produce an updated Guide for Policy Makers. APCEL collaborated with Ghent University (UGent) to create a comprehensive 128-page report on the status and associated developments in ECTs in 197 countries that have taken place since 2016, as well as provide recommendations on how ECTs can be strengthened as a key institution for environmental justice. This Guide was completed in 2021 and published in 2022. Join us at this official launch and hear from UNEP, APCEL, UGent, and representatives from the Review Board as they share their insights on the Guide's research findings and recommendations.
