SHADOW BANKING IN CHINA: RISKS AND REGULATION

BY PROFESSOR SHEN WEI KOGUAN LAW SCHOOL, SHANGHAI JIAO TONG UNIVERSITY, CHINA THURSDAY, 17 SEPTEMBER 2015

About the Seminar

While the banking sector in Western countries has been heavily hit by the recent financial crisis, the banking sector in China seems to perform well. Nevertheless, the shadow banking system, which is said to be one of a variety of sources for the current financial crisis, is also in existence in China and the situation has turned worse recently. The focus of this talk is to look into the shadow banking system in the Chinese context and "rationalize" governmental responses to the shadow banking regime.

About Centre for Banking & Finance Law (CBFL)

The Centre for Banking & Finance Law (CBFL) at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore, seeks to generate scholarship and promote thinking about the vibrancy, robustness and soundness of the banking sector, capital markets and other financial services. Through the research our scholars undertake and the events we organise, we seek to create and share knowledge, to engage stakeholders in an exchange of ideas, and to enhance the appreciation of legal and regulatory issues. We aim to bring greater theoretical and analytical clarity to these issues, to examine their policy impact, and to be a catalyst for ideas on how to improve banking and financial systems at the national, regional and global levels.
