

BOOK LAUNCH: VENTURE CAPITAL LAW IN CHINA

By Lin Lin

Friday 30 April 2021, 4.30 PM TO 5.30 PM (SGT)

via Zoom

DESCRIPTION

China's venture capital market is not just the world's largest and fastest developing market, it also has the unique distinction of being engineered through heavy governmental intervention. This book breaks new ground by examining and testing established legal theories regarding the law of venture capital through the lens of the Chinese venture capital market. Using a hand-collected dataset of venture capital agreements, interviews with practitioners, and Chinese court judgements, it provides a comprehensive and insightful analysis of the Chinese venture capital market from the legal perspective. Topics covered include the roles of law and governmental intervention in developing the market, the state of investor protection, unique contractual developments and exits of venture capital investments. By providing an in-depth comparative analysis against the American venture capital market, it provides critical context and makes the Chinese venture market accessible. It is an invaluable resource for venture capital scholars, policymakers and practitioners.

Preface and Acknowledgement; List of Abbreviations; 1. An Introduction to the Venture Capital Market in China; 2. Venture Capital Fund-Raising; 3. Venture Capital Investing; 4. Venture Capital Exits; 5. Lessons from China and Ways Forward; Appendix. List of Chinese Legislations; Index.

'Engineering a venture capital market requires solving a common set of problems, but each country comes to the task having to work with the bricolage left by its history. Thus, understanding the engineering problem is necessarily comparative. This book masterfully compares the structure of the VC market in the two largest such markets: the U.S. and China. There's nothing like it.'
