Shipping Judgments Handed Down in 2018: An Overview

SPEAKER
Professor Stephen Girvin
MPA Professor of Maritime Law
Director, Centre for Maritime Law

ABOUT THIS COURSE
This seminar is part of an annual update, “English Shipping Law”, which has been contributed by the speaker since 2001 and published in the International Maritime & Commercial Law Yearbook (part of Lloyd’s Maritime & Commercial Law Quarterly). The seminar will also include consideration of judgments handed down by other courts. 2018 was another strong year, headed by a controversial decision of the UK Supreme Court in Volcafe (burden of proof under the Hague and Hague-Visby Rules) and two further seminal decisions on limitation of liability under the Rules (The Maersk Tangier; The Aqasia) and an important collision appeal (The Alexandra 1 and Ever Smart). Also in the frame are English Court of Appeal judgments in The Pacific Voyager (voyage charterparties and cancellation) and The Alkyn (cross-undertakings on arrest) as well as several first instance judgments covering charterparty disputes (The Maria (Inter-club New York Produce Exchange Agreement); The Songa Winds (on LOIs), The Ocean Virgo (speed warranties), and a clutch of important first instance decisions, including The Alhany (time bar), The NV Sur (deviation), and admiralty arrests (The Sertao; The Ocean 8 of Hartlepool; The Posidon). Some of the cases will be considered in greater detail; cursory reference may be made to other reported cases in Australia, England, and Hong Kong, and not included in the detailed discussion.
