Faculty & University Appointments

- Deputy Director of the Centre for Maritime Law (CML)

External Appointments

- Member, Admiralty Court Users’ Committee, Supreme Court of Singapore
- Member, Maritime Law Association of Singapore

Publications

ARTICLES

Paul Myburgh, “‘Satisfactory for its Own Purposes’: Private Direct Arrangements and Judicial Vessel Sales” (2016) 22 Journal of International Maritime Law 355-369

Paul Myburgh, “Carriers 2: Common-Sense 0” [2010] Lloyd’s Maritime and Commercial Law Quarterly 569-574

Paul Myburgh, “Horse and Buggy on the Electronic Highway: Transnational Internet Defamation in the High Court of Australia” (2003) 9 New Zealand Business Law Quarterly 151-161

Paul Myburgh, “‘We Request You to Take Mercy’: Human Flotsam and Inhumane Jettison in the Tampa Incident” (2002)

CHAPTERS

BOOKS

BOOKS EDITED

Paul Myburgh and GW Austin (eds), Essays and Documents on Human Rights in the Pacific (1992)

BOOK REVIEWS

CONFERENCE PAPERS

Paul Myburgh, “A Successful Substantivist Carve-Out? The Athens Convention as Uniform International Law” (Paper presented at the Global Shipping Law Forum, 4 July 2018, University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia)

Paul Myburgh, “‘Satisfactory for its Own Purposes’: Private Direct Arrangements and Judicial Vessel Sales” (Paper presented at the IXth European Colloquium of Maritime Law Research, 14 - 15 Sept 2016, University of the Basque Country, Bilbao, Spain)

Paul Myburgh, “P & I Club Letters of Undertaking and Admiralty Arrests” (Presented at the Global Shipping Law Forum 2015, 7- 8 December 2015, Lee Sheridan Conference Room, NUS Law School, Singapore)