Graduate Certificate in International Arbitration & Dispute Resolution

With a rich heritage spanning over 60 years, NUS Law is one of the best law schools in the world and is widely regarded as Asia’s leading law school.

Home to over 70 permanent faculty with law degrees from more than a dozen jurisdictions, NUS Law is an institution dedicated to building a community and an environment in which faculty members, undergraduate and graduate students can discuss and reflect on the fundamental legal issues that affect societies in today’s globalised world.
This programme is approved as a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) activity by the Singapore Institute of Legal Education (SILE).

The Graduate Certificate in International Arbitration & Dispute Resolution (GCIADR) is aimed at graduates with a law degree, who are seeking to upgrade their skills and knowledge as in-house counsel, lawyers, arbitrators and legal service officers engaged in the practice of arbitration and dispute resolution.

This programme offers a wide selection of regular and intensive modules taught in Singapore by our own faculty members as well as visiting professors, who are top arbitrators and academics from around the world.
