ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR BANKING & FINANCE LAW

The Centre for Banking & Finance Law (CBFL) at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore, seeks to generate scholarship and promote thinking about the vibrancy, robustness and soundness of the banking sector, capital markets and other financial services. Through the research our scholars undertake and the events we organise, we seek to create and share knowledge, to engage stakeholders in an exchange of ideas, and to enhance the appreciation of legal and regulatory issues. We aim to bring greater theoretical and analytical clarity to these issues, to examine their policy impact, and to be a catalyst for ideas on how to improve banking and financial systems at the national, regional and global levels. ### WEBINAR

FRIDAY 29 JANUARY 2021 • 4.00 PM TO 5.15 PM (SGT)

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Alternative investments have dramatically changed in the "Tech Era". The rise of technological innovation has added new dimensions and new risks to alternative investment markets. This seminar will discuss the new business models, new issues that have arisen in the evolving alternative investments sector, and corresponding responses from regulators and practitioners. The seminar will compare different types of alternative investments, examine their associated risks, and propose solutions to mitigate those risks. Specific topics include the practice and regulation of equity crowdfunding, the emerging models and the current regulatory and contractual solutions in the venture capital crypto landscape, the regulatory sandbox, and Singapore's experience in regulating and facilitating the growth of the FinTech sector.
